Subject: Complaint Regarding Poor Condition of Roads

Respected Sir/Madam,

I wish to draw your attention to the poor condition of roads in our locality. The roads are full of potholes, causing frequent traffic jams and accidents. During the rainy season, waterlogging worsens the situation and creates inconvenience for residents.

Immediate repair and maintenance of roads is required to ensure public safety. Kindly take necessary action at the earliest.

Thanking you.

Yours sincerely,
Satyendra Pratap Singh

1. (b) M. Hamel
 2. (a) Laziness
 3. (a) Patriotism
 4. (b) Regretful

(B) Short Answers

5. Franz's Regret

Franz felt regret because he had neglected learning his mother tongue. When he realized it was his last French lesson, he understood the value of his language and felt sorry for wasting time.

6. Significance of the Title Lost Spring

The title refers to the lost childhood of poor children forced into labour. Instead of enjoying education and freedom, they struggle for survival, thus losing the joy of spring, which symbolizes youth.

7. Change in the Peddler

The peddler was transformed by Edla's kindness. Her compassion made him realize his mistakes. He returned the stolen money and chose a path of honesty, proving that human goodness can reform a person.

Q7. Long Answer (5 Marks Each)

8. Theme of Fear in Deep Water

In Deep Water, Douglas narrates his childhood fear of water after a traumatic incident. The fear haunted him for years. However, with determination and practice under a swimming instructor, he conquered it. The story conveys that fear can be overcome through courage and perseverance.

9. Character of Aunt Jennifer

Aunt Jennifer symbolizes suppressed women in a patriarchal society. She feels oppressed by her marriage and heavy wedding band. However, her embroidered tigers represent her inner desire for strength and freedom. The poem highlights gender inequality and silent suffering.

Q8. Long Answer (8 Marks)

10. Social Injustice in Lost Spring and The Rattrap

Lost Spring highlights the exploitation of poor children forced into rag picking and glass-blowing industries. Poverty denies them education and freedom.

In The Rattrap, social injustice is shown through poverty and neglect faced by the peddler. However, compassion helps in transformation. Both stories reflect inequality but emphasize hope through human kindness.

Q9. Long Answer (12 Marks)

11. Human Values in Flamingo

Human values such as compassion, courage and patriotism are central themes in Flamingo.

In The Last Lesson, patriotism and love for language are emphasized through M. Hamel's dedication.

In The Rattrap, kindness and empathy transform the peddler's life.

These lessons teach that moral values shape character and bring positive change in society.
