Subject: Increasing Cyber Crimes among Youth

Respected Sir/Madam,

Through your esteemed newspaper, I wish to highlight the alarming rise in cyber crimes among youth. Many young individuals fall victim to online fraud, hacking and cyber bullying due to lack of awareness.

Strict cyber laws, digital literacy programs and parental supervision are necessary to curb this issue. Educational institutions must also conduct awareness campaigns to promote safe internet usage.

I request authorities to take immediate measures to address this growing concern.

Yours sincerely,

Satyendra Pratap Singh

Q5. Article Writing (8 Marks)

Balancing Academic Excellence and Mental Well-being

Academic success is important for a bright future, but it should not come at the cost of mental health. Students often experience stress due to high expectations and competition.

Maintaining a balance between studies and relaxation is essential. Regular exercise, hobbies and proper time management help reduce stress. Schools should promote counselling services and awareness programs.

When mental well-being is prioritized, students perform better academically and lead healthier lives. Therefore, balancing academic excellence with emotional stability is crucial.
